WHAT BENEFITS WILL THE SELECTED ONES GET?

Bloggers and influencers approved by the organisation of FHG forum 2020 will benefit from:

- Free individual and non-transferable Blogger/Influencer badge with online delivery for physical or virtual attendance at the FHG forum. If you choose the face-to-face option and the event cannot be held physically for health security reasons, the accreditation will automatically go into digital format.
- Permanent access to the press room, with space for content writing and Internet.

OTHER CONSIDERATIONS

- VALIDATION PROCEDURE
FHG forum will analyse the profiles and validate those that meet the organisation's criteria. Applications which do not meet the required criteria or do not provide all the required information will not be admitted. The trade show reserve the right to exercise their rights with respect to the accreditation rules for bloggers and/or influencers and the right not to accept those requests which they consider do not fit the requested profile.

- RULES OF ACCESS

The accreditation is personal and non-transferable and must be available on your mobile phone at any time. It will be automatically sent by email to the applicants who have been approved and it expires once it has been completed. To access the venue, the rules of access to the trade show must be complied with.

- DIETS/TRAVEL

The Blogger/Influencer accreditation does not in any case cover travel expenses or per diets.

- MULTIPLE ACCREDITATION

Only one person may be accredited in each case. If it is necessary to accredit more than one person in each case, it is essential to contact the organisation beforehand by sending an email to social@alimentaria.com and provide documentary proof of your relationship with the organisation.

- ON SITE ACCREDITATION

There is no possibility of accreditation of bloggers and/or influencers on site. Those who do not qualify for Blogger/Influencer accreditation must purchase a general visitor's badge in physical or virtual format.
