CONCEPT

Vinum Nature-VN.Bcn'18, the professional meeting point for the ecological, biodynamics and natural wines of Organic certified production, will be held together with Intervin 2018. Both players join in an indispensable appointment to develop synergies and to create opportunities of business in the promising sector of the ecological wine.

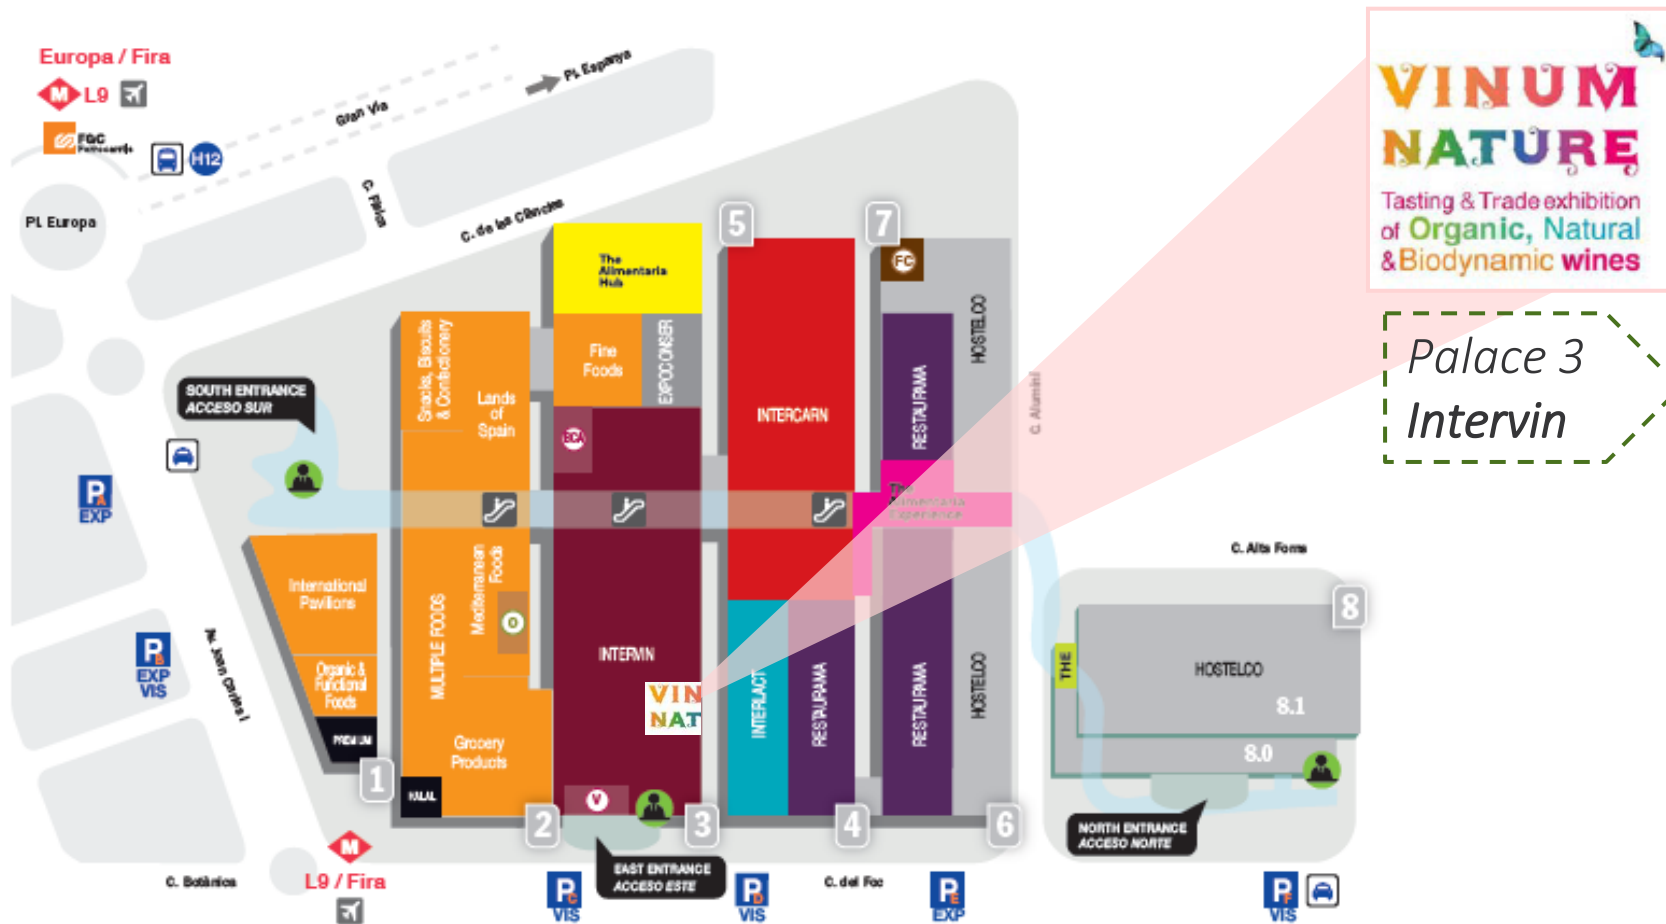

An ideal space where all the wineries of organic production have the opportunity to make effective sale contacts and where professional visitors can get to know directly the producers, their wines and the most current market trends.
