Demands on Service Levels for Digital Government

Anytime

24-hour real-time service

Enabling citizens to easily submit service requirements at anytime

Anywhere

Multi-level and multi-location handling

Service requirements can be handled at government service centers and grass-root units. The system delegates service to the public and supports remote handling.

On-demand

All-inclusive government services

Covering all services related to people's livelihood, including government affairs, public services, and convenient services.

Agile Access

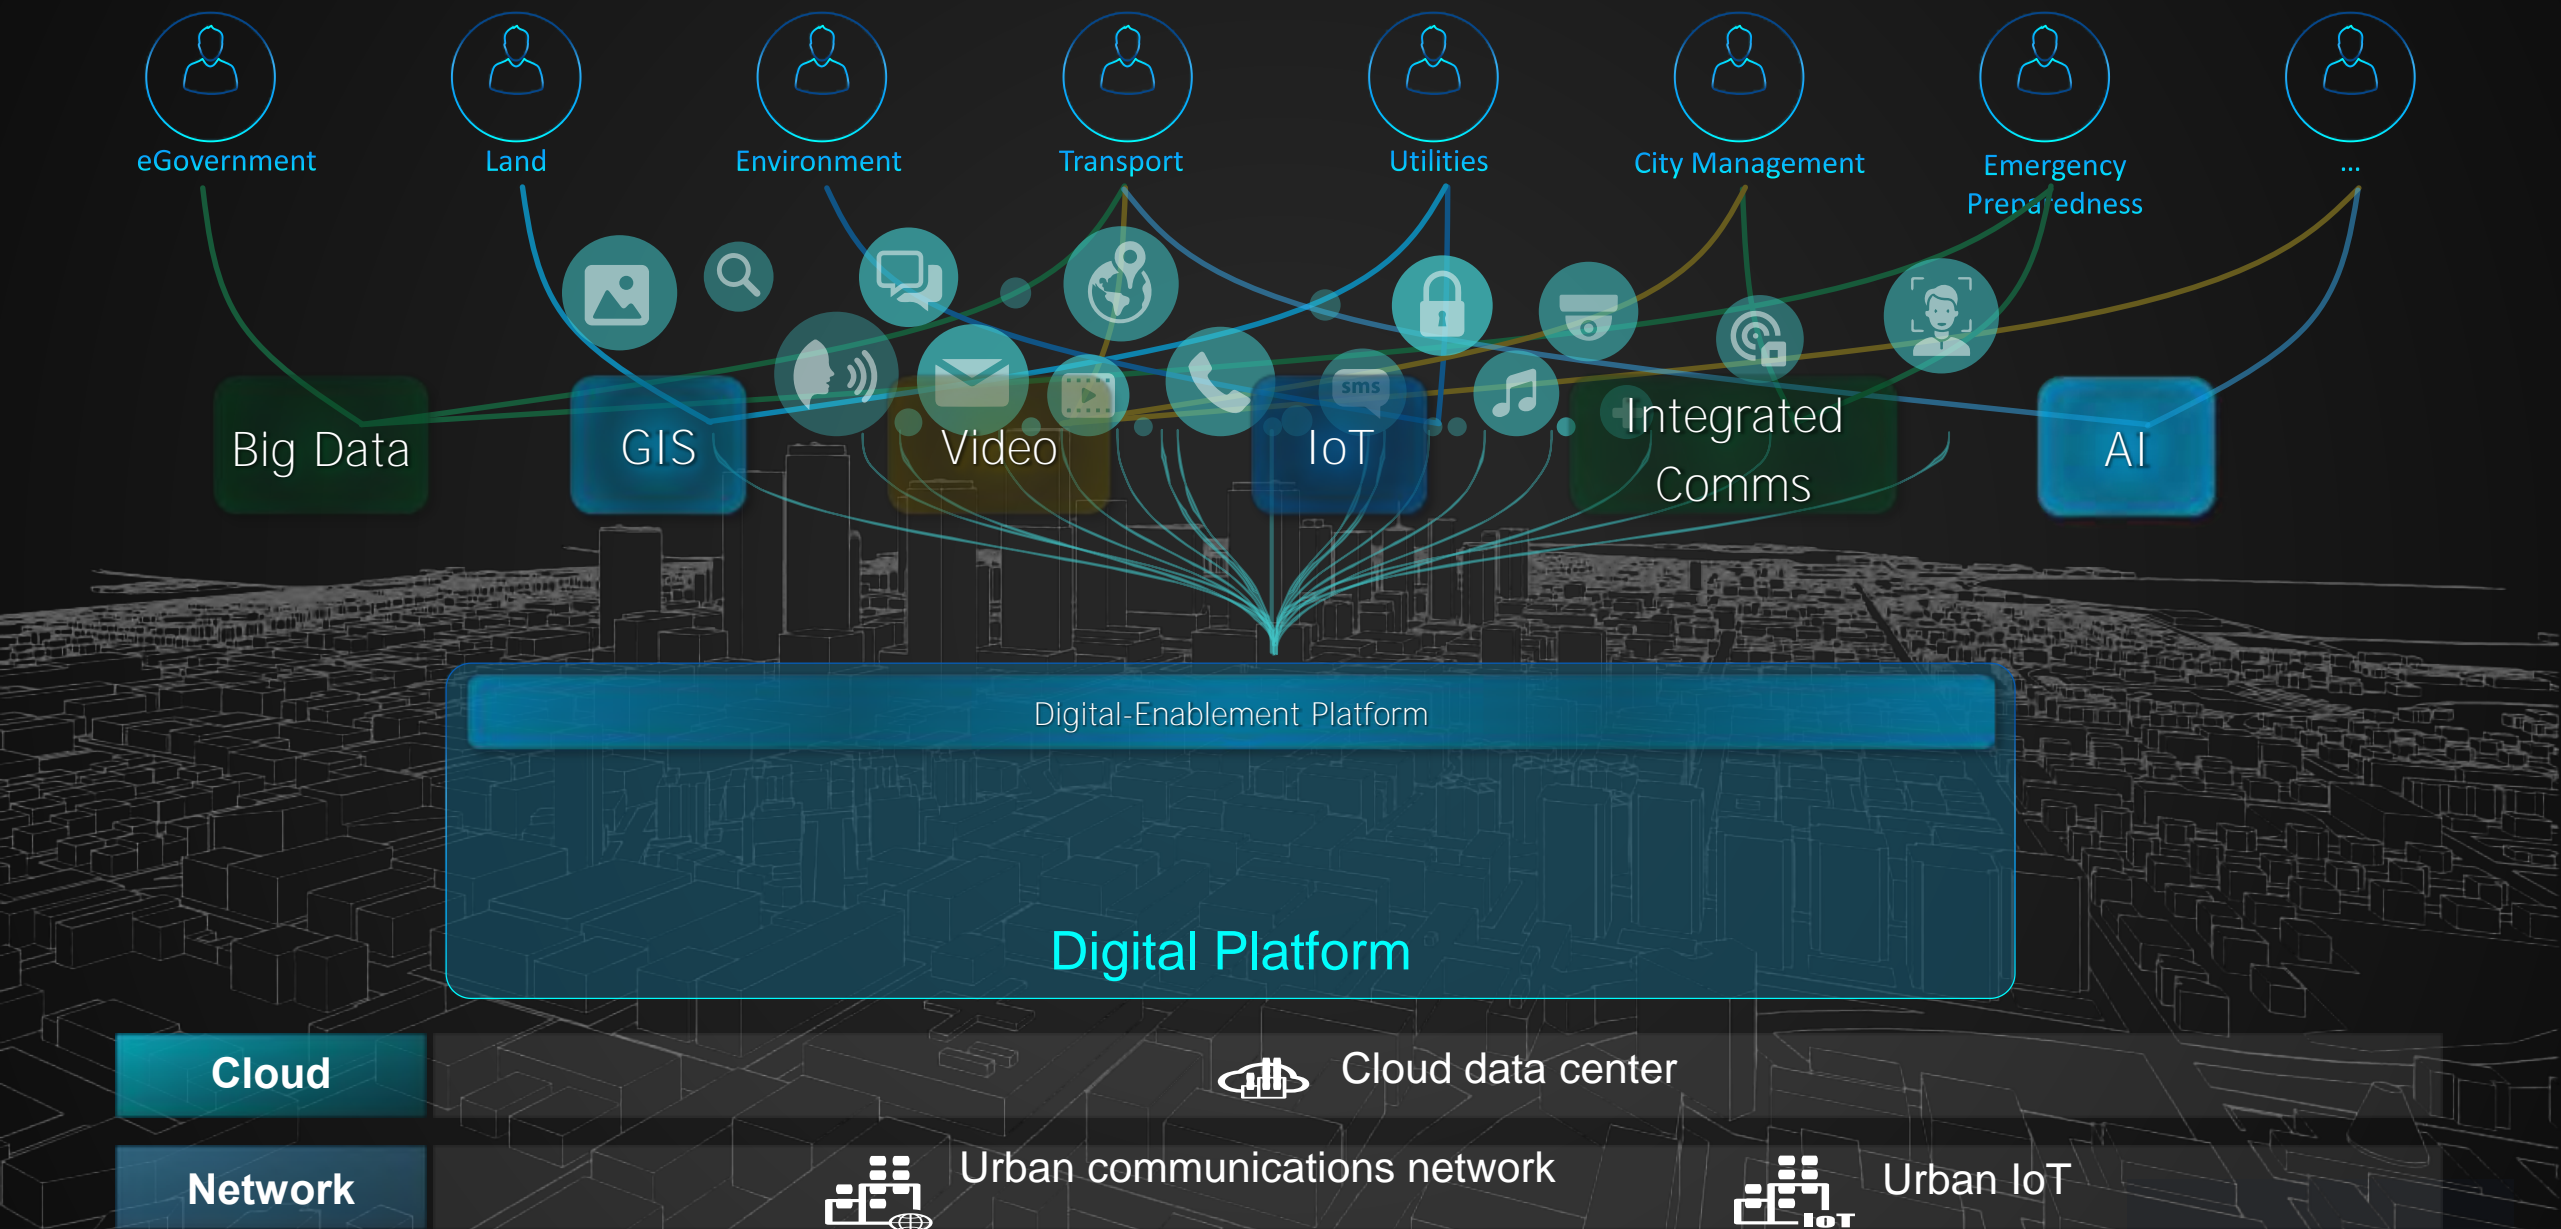

Diverse access methods

Web browsers, mobile apps, and intelligent self-service devices
